

ECUMENICAL LEAD (EAST LONDON)

£10,907 for 12 hours per week

Flexible working in East London

This part-time job involves working with senior church leaders, churches together groups and other organisations to promote Christian unity and mission opportunities between denominations and other traditions of the Christian church.

If you believe you can help us to develop relations, organise meetings, improve our communication, support ecumenical projects and manage the charity then please get in touch.

We are interested to hear from people who are:

- enthusiastic about Christians partnering in mission
- confident communicators and users of social media
- passionate organisers of community activities
- excellent administrators who can manage priorities
- actively involved in a Christian church
