Faith in Action: Living out the Gospel of Justice

with Rachel Lampard

Director for Social Justice & Social Action for The Methodist Church

5th February 2026 10am-4pm

£70 including refreshments and a two-course lunch

This course will look at what it means to put our faith into action in a world scarred by injustice. Participants will be invited to explore living the Gospel of justice through: our roots and motivations as justice-seekers; the interplay of activism with spirituality; and the practices of justice-seeking. The course will be interactive and engaging, involving a mixture of input, discussion and reflection, as well as some practical activities. There is no prior knowledge or experience required.

What is God calling you to next?

Spend a day using the four Gospel pen-portraits of Jesus and ancient Christian imagery to reflect on the process of ongoing discernment from within the framework of our journey in Christ, with an 'artistic twist in the tail' through the lens of the work of the 18th century artist Thomas Gainsborough.

Finally, a collaborative piece of Art will be created throughout the day, with a theological surprise emerging as the place to ponder how vocation is unfolding in our own lives.
